

English Country Garden

G C D G
How many kinds of sweet flowers grow
G C D G
In an English country garden?
G C D G
We'll tell you now of some that we know
G C D G
Those we miss you'll surely pardon
G D
Daffodils, heart's ease and flox
G D
Meadowsweet and lady smocks
G Am D D7
Gentian, lupin and tall hollyhocks
G C
Roses, foxgloves, snowdrops,
D G
blue forget-me-nots
G C G D
In an English country garden

G C D G
How many insects come here and go
G C D G
In an English country garden?
G C D G
We'll tell you now of some that we know
G C D G
Those we miss you'll surely pardon
G D
Fireflies, moths, gnats and bees
G D
Spiders climbing in the trees
G Am D D7
Butterflies drift in the gentle breeze
G C
There are snakes, ants that sting
D G
And other creeping things
G C D G
In an English country garden

^G How ^C many ^D songbirds ^G fly to and fro

^G In ^C an ^D English ^G country garden?

^G We'll ^C tell ^D you ^G now of some that we know

^G Those ^C we ^D miss ^G you'll surely pardon

^G House ^D sparrow, ^C cuckoo and quail

Woodpecker and Pied Wagtail

^G Blackbird, ^{Am} lark, ^D thrush and ^{D7} nightingale

^G There ^C is ^D joy in the ^G spring

^G When ^C the ^G birds ^D begin to sing

^G In ^C an ^G English ^D country garden

^G Robin ^C (Robin, ^D robin)

^G Don't ^C forget ^D the robin (Don't ^G forget ^C the robin)

^G Robin ^C (Robin, ^D robin)

^D Don't ^G forget the robin

(Whistle.....FADE)

