

Red Rose Café

(The Fureys, Andre Rieu)

NOTE:
Time signature
6/8 time

INTRO: Gm (x4)

Gm
They come from the farms and the factories too

D
And they all soon forget who they are.

D7
The cares of the day are soon washed away

D Gm
As they sit on a stool by the bar.

Gm7
The girl with green eyes in the Rolling Stones shirt

G Cm
Doesn't look like she works on the land.

Gm
The man at the end, he's a very good friend
D D7 G G G ↓ [Stop]
Of a man who sells cars second hand.

CHORUS: n/c G
Down at the Red Rose Cafe in the harbour,
G D
There by the port just outside Amsterdam,
C G
Everyone shares in the songs and the laughter,
D D7 Gm Gm Gm Gm
Everyone there is so happy to be there.

Gm
The grey haired old man, the piano will play

D
Any song that you might want to hear.

D7
That pretty young thing doesn't know how to sing

D Gm
Yet the customers give her a cheer.

Gm7
Outside in the real world the race is still on,

G Cm
It's all gone a little bit mad.

Gm
In circles we go but it's so good to know

D D7 G G G ↓ [Stop]
Of a place where good times can be had.

CHORUS:

Cont'd

Red Rose Café (Cont'd)

Gm
The salesmen relax with a few pints of beer

D
And they try not to speak about trade.

D7
The poet won't write any verses tonight

D Gm
But he may sing a sweet serenade.

Gm7
So pull up a chair and forget about life,

G Cm
It's a good thing to do now and then.

Gm
And if you like it here, I have an idea

D D7 G G G↓ [Stop]
Tomorrow, let's all meet again.

n/c G
CHORUS: Down at the Red Rose Cafe in the harbour,

G D
There by the port just outside Amsterdam,

C G
Everyone shares in the songs and the laughter,

D D7 G G D7
Everyone there is so happy to be there.

D7 G
Down at the Red Rose Cafe in the harbour,

G D
There by the port just outside Amsterdam,

C G
Everyone shares in the songs and the laughter,

D D7 G G E7
Everyone there is so happy to be there.

E7 A
Down at the Red Rose Cafe in the harbour,

A E7
There by the port just outside Amsterdam,

D A
Everyone shares in the songs and the laughter,

E7 A D A D A D A↓
Everyone there is so happy to be there ... re.

