

Dorset is beautiful Intro: Last line of chorus

Key of C The Wurzels

C F G C
CHORUS: Dorset is beautiful wherever you go,
C G 2 3 4 5
And the rain in the summertime makes the wurzel bush grow,
C G
And it's pleasant to sit in the thunder and hail,
C F G C 2 3 4 5
With your girlfriend on a turnip stump to hear the sweet nightingale.

C F G C
1. As I was walking one evening in June,
C G 2 3 4 5
I spied two farmers making hay in the moon,
C G
Said one to the other with a twinkle in his eye,
C F G C 2 3 4 5
"There be more birds in the long grass than there be in the sky." CHORUS

C F G C
2. Now Sarah's me girlfriend and I love her so,
C G 2 3 4 5
Her's as big as an 'aystack and forty years old.
C G
Farmer says she's gi-nor-mous, and loud do he scoff,
C F G C 2 3 4 5
"Cos you have to leave chalk-mark to show where you left off." CHORUS

C F G C
3. Farmer looks at Gwendoline and then looks at Ned,
C G 2 3 4 5
"What an 'ansome young couple, they ought to be wed."
C G
But then he says sadly, "'Tis impossible of course,
C F G C 2 3 4 5
'Cos Gwendoline's me daughter and Ned is me horse." CHORUS

C F G C
4. When Sarah was milking with Nellie the cow
C G 2 3 4 5
She pulled and she tugged but she didn't know quite how,
C G
So after a short while, Nellie turned with a frown,
C F G C 2 3 4 5
Said "You hang tight, love, I'll jump up and down." CHORUS
