When the Ship Comes In

Bob Dylan

C         Em         F         C
Oh the time will come up when the winds will stop
   Am         F         C
And the breeze will cease to be a-breathin'
   C         Em         F         C         C         C
Like the stillness in the wind before the hurricane begins,
   C         G         C
The hour that the ship comes in
   C         Em         F         C
And the sea will split and the ships will hit
   Em         F         C
And the sands on the shoreline will be shaking
   C         Em         F         C
And the tide will sound and the waves will pound
   C         F         G         C
And the morning will be a-breaking

   C         Em         F         C
Oh the fishes will laugh as they swim out of the path
   Am         F         C
And the seagulls will be a-smilin'
   C         Em         F         C
And the rocks on the sand will proudly stand
   C         G         C
The hour that the ship comes in
   C         Em         F         C
And the words that are used for to get the ship confused
   Em         F         C
Will not be understood as they're spoken
   C         Em         F         C
Oh the chains of the sea will have busted in the night
   C         F         G         C
And be buried on the bottom of the ocean

   C         Em         F         C
A song will lift as the main sail shifts
And the boat drifts unto the shoreline
And the sun will respect every face on the deck
The hour that the ship comes in
And the sands will roll out a carpet of gold
For your wearied toes to be a-touchin'
And the ship's wise men will remind you once again
That the whole wide world is watchin'
Oh the foes will rise with the sleep still in their eyes
And they'll jerk from their beds and think they're dreamin'
But they'll pinch themselves and squeal
And they'll know that it's for real,
The hour that the ship comes in
And they'll raise their hands
Sayin' we'll meet all your demands
But we'll shout from the bow
Your days are numbered
And like Pharoah's tribe they'll be drownded in the tide
And like Goliath they'll be conquered
