

NEW YORK GIRLS

C F
1. As I walked down the Broadway
G C
One evening in July
C F
I met a maid who asked me trade
G C
And a sailor John says I
C F
To Tiffany's I took her
G C
I did not mind expense
C F
I bought her two gold earrings
G C
And they cost me fifteen cents

Chorus:

C F
And away, you Santee
G C
My dear Annie
C F -- --
O, you New York Girls
G C
Can't you dance the Polka?

C F
2. Says she, "You Limejuice sailor
G C
Now see me home you may"
C F
But when we reached her cottage door
G C
She this to me did say
C F
"My flash man he's a Yankee
G C
With his hair cut short behind
C F
He wears a pair of long sea-boots
G C
And he sails in the Blackball Line

Chorus:

C F
3. He's homeward bound this evening
G C
And with me he will stay
C F
So get a move on, sailor-boy
G C
Get cracking on your way"
C F
So I kissed her hard and proper
G C
Afore her flash man came
C F
And fare ye well, me Bowery gal
G C
I know your little game

Chorus:

C F
4. I wrapped me glad rags round me
G C
And to the docks did steer
C F
I'll never court another maid
G C
I'll stick to rum and beer
C F
I joined a Yankee blood-boat
G C
And sailed away next morn
C F
Don't ever fool around with gals
G C
You're safer off Cape Horn

Chorus:
